From: Mr. Johnson
Subject: Information about National Soil Judging
Date: April 20, 2022

The National Soil Judging contest is fast approaching. We will leave on Tuesday morning, May 3, at 8:00 am. Members should bring enough money for meals from Tuesday lunch to Friday lunch (with the exception of Tuesday supper and Thursday supper), and also for any entertainment we do (go-karts, movie, etc.). Members will need to pack the following:

- ☐ Clothing that could get dirty to practice soil judging on Wednesday
- ☐ Comfortable shoes/boots for contest and practice (there will be a lot of walking)
- ☐ This year's FFA t-shirt/sweatshirt for contest; pack a jacket/coat in case weather will be cold and rain gear (boots, rain jacket) in case of poor weather (we judge rain or shine)
- ☐ Comfortable clothing for Tuesday and Friday when on the road
- ☐ Official dress- black slacks/skirts, black shoes, white shirt, FFA jacket and tie/scarf to wear at awards banquet

We plan on leaving for home from Oklahoma City Friday morning, May 6, around 8:00 am, getting back to Clarinda around 4:00 pm.

Our itinerary is listed below.
